

NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

April 11, 2006

SunCorp Annual Meeting: “History in the Making”

Denver, CO – SunCorp Corporate Credit Union’s 2006 Annual Meeting with the theme “History in the Making” is scheduled to take place Tuesday – Wednesday, May 16 – 17, in Estes Park, CO. Estes Park was the site of the historic signing of the Credit Union National Association (CUNA) bylaws in 1934.

At this beautiful and historic setting, participants will hear dynamic guest speakers on topics including identity theft, investments, the economy, the latest from the U. S. Department of the Treasury, and more.

SunCorp will feature the following speakers on Tuesday May 16 at The Stanley Hotel in Estes Park:

Developing a Reality-Based Vision for the Credit Union System

John Lass
President, Ravenna Partners, Inc.

Your Credit Union as Hero: Protecting Your Members Against Identity Theft

John Sileo
President, The Sileo Corp. and Founder, ThinkLikeASpy.com

General Economic Overview and Current Events from the Treasury Department

David Nason
Deputy Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions of the U.S.
Department of the Treasury

Rocky (Mountain) Environment and Great (Plains) Opportunities

Mark Schieffer
Senior Vice President/Chief Investment Officer at SunCorp

SunCorp is one of the top ten corporate credit unions in the nation, providing financial services to credit unions and Credit Union Service Organizations in 20 states. SunCorp operates three Regional Offices, in Denver, Salt Lake City and Omaha. For more information, please visit www.suncorp.coop.

- 30 -

Summer Stallings, Marketing & Communications Specialist, SunCorp 877.786.2677, x4651
Ed Beckmann, Vice President, Marketing & Communications, SunCorp 877.786.2677, x4627